Charges Grew Out of Floggings in Oklahoma
a Year Ago—Justice Held That Evidence
Was Insufficient—One Witness Could Not be Located—Writ Issued for Him

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 10.—Rioting charges against N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma, and two other men, were dismissed late today by Justice of the Peace Leo B. White after a preliminary hearing.

The court ruled the evidence insufficient to hold the men for trial.

The charges grew out of the flogging here more than a year ago of E. R. Merriman, in which the defendants were alleged to have participated. L. L. Rohde and C. Whitlock, both of Oklahoma City, were the other two men.

Grand Dragon Jewett denied on the witness stand today the accusation of Dr. A. A. Maupin, a local dentist, that he "Jewett" had led the band of masked men who abducted Merriman and lashed him severely for his alleged relations with a married woman.

FEDERATION OF LABOR AFFIRMS FORMER STAND

Overwhelming Vote for Modification of Volstead Act

(By the Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—More whisky glasses are being made now than in pre-prohibition days, "and they are not for ornament," said William Clark of the Flint Glass Workers' Union in a debate today at the convention of the American Federation of Labor, preceding action reaffirming the federation's former declaration for modification of the Volstead act.

Steve Sumner, of the Chicago Milk Wagon Drivers' Union declared milk bottles were hard to obtain.

"Now," he added, "I learn the reason they are making whisky glasses instead of milk bottles." After lengthy discussion the convention adopted by overwhelming vote a declaration ratifying the former attitude of the federation with such modification of the Volstead act as will have the effect of giving the people beer and light wine, "in lieu of the flood of moonshine that now poisons those who are foolish enough to consume it."

Continuation of the work of the federation's national Non-Partisan political campaign committee was approved by the federation today and the rank and file of labor was called upon to make contributions to a fund for the purpose. Captain C. P. Plummer, senior vice-commander of American Legion in addressing the convention today declared that his organization is working for Americanization and aims to put every foreign language newspaper in the United States out of business. Of 600 such publications he said 100 are damnable unpatriotic in advocating Bolshevik doctrine.

Dr. Carl E. Black was in Virginia yesterday making a call on W. Swope, who is ill.

Essington Campaign Formally Launched

(By the Associated Press)
ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 10.—"Honesty, decency, efficiency—these make up the issue in the campaign," declared State Senator Thurlow G. Essington, anti-Small candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Illinois, at a rally here tonight which marked the opening of the 1924 gubernatorial campaign.

"I am merely the figurehead for the issue," Senator Essington said. "If the decent, honest upright citizens of Illinois stand with me, I shall need no other organization to defeat the political machine I am fighting. The other organization has been growing and fattening for four years, but I am ready to take my chance with the upright, decent citizens of Illinois."

"I have been injected into this campaign in a peculiar way," continued the senator, "but I cannot say that I am an unwilling candidate, for if any effort of mine can restore to Illinois its good name

I am willing to expend that effort. The machine we are fighting to overthrow is indeed a powerful one. I know how this organization fights, and I had a terrific battle a year ago to win reelection to the senate. Governor Small and his best lieutenants came to LaSalle county and personally engaged in the fight. The governor, at a meeting at which I was present, offered the county $10,000,000 in waterways improvements and 200 miles of hard roads if the voters would "beat Essington." My friends put me over. I believe that voters cannot be bribed wholesale.

"The issues are very clear. I hope that in my campaign it will never become necessary for me to vilify the man against whom I am running. You all know his record. I do not believe that there is a man or woman here who doesn't suspect that there is something rotten in Springfield."

LEGISLATURE IN OKLAHOMA OPENS FORMALLY TODAY

Chief Executive Reiterates His Previous Statements

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 10.—Majority members of the lower house of the state legislature went into caucus tonight to complete an organization to institute impeachment proceedings against Governor J. C. Walton when the extraordinary session of the legislature is called to order tomorrow morning.

Headed by Representatives W. D. McBe of Stephens county who is slated for the speakership, the house members just before going into executive session reiterated their determination to go "straight down the line with a general house cleaning," unmovable by the executive's offer to resign if the legislature first will enact an anti-Ku Klux Klan bill which he proposes.

Current Rumors

Rumor was current in political circles tonight that the legislature will oppose any attempt of Governor Walton to address the body when it convenes tomorrow. This was denied, however, in official quarters. It is known that the governor has prepared a message in which he will urge the passage of his bill to unmask the Klan in Oklahoma. Should the legislators refuse to call on the governor as is the custom, close followers of the situation declared that the executive would resign unconditionally.

Administration supporters

denied that such a move is contemplated. They further declared that Governor Walton's offer of compromise would not wholly be disregarded by the law makers.

Report Denied

Governor Walton also denied the report of his unconditional resignation in a statement declaring that he would fight to the last ditch if the legislature fails to enact the anti-klan legislation.

"I have absolutely no intention of resigning my office on any other basis than the one already announced," he said. "The threat of impeachment does not worry me in the least. If the legislature fails to pass the anti-klan bill when it meets, I will fight to the last ditch."

"This is final."

DENVER MAY GET G. O. P. CONVENTION

(By the Associated Press)

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 10.—That the 1924 Republican National Convention may be held in Denver, as the possible outgrowth of the regional Republican convention opening here tomorrow is the prediction of Rocky Mountain Republican leaders gathered for the conference. Party leaders from six states will attend.

Altho John T. Adams, Republican national committeeman, who is here for the conference has refused to commit himself definitely on the subject, he is known to have suggested Denver as a possible meeting place several months ago.

INVESTIGATION OF GRAND JURY DELAYED

(By the Associated Press)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 10.—The grand jury investigation into the death of Mrs. Gertrude Gordon Webb at the Westchester Biltmore Country Club two weeks ago, was adjourned today until next Monday after three more witnesses had been heard. These witnesses were Dr. Davenport West of the Roosevelt Hospital in New York who attended Mrs. Webb during part of her illness and who was alleged to have said he found no trace of her having been poisoned; and Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hunter, of Devon, Pa., whose son would benefit under one of the three wills left by the society woman.

EDITOR TALKS ON THE "SQUARE DEAL" AT FARM CONGRESS

(By the Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 10.—The farmer is entitled to a square deal not only from the railroads but the railway employees, manufacturers, merchants, those from whom he borrows money and who levy taxes, Samuel O. Dunne, editor of the Railway Age said in an address before the International Farm Congress tonight.

"Obviously the farmers might be wholly ruined while getting a perfectly square deal from the railroads if at the same time the opposite of a square deal were given them by other persons or industries," Mr. Dunne said.

"Why is it that so many persons advocate lower freight rates as a measure of relief for the farmer and so few think of urging reductions of prices or taxes, and of the wages paid organized labor as measures of relief. Where is the man in public life who has yet had the courage to tell the farmers who are losing money, that the bulk of it is going in the form of high wages to the organized labor, employed not only in our railroads but in all our other great industries?"

"It is astonishing that farmers should be joining with organized labor in political movements against the railroads and other large industries, upon the theory that such movements can get relief for agriculture. This Farmer-Labor political movement affords a striking example of the lion and the lamb lying down together with the lamb inside the lion."

SENATOR COUZENS ANNOUNCES CURE FOR VARIOUS ILLS

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Receivership for Germany, a more sympathetic interest by America in European affairs and modification of the Volstead act to allow five per cent alcoholic content, were some of the recommendations voiced by Senator Couzens of Michigan, who returned today from a tour of Europe.

He said he believed Henry Ford would be elected president if he were nominated by any of the recognized parties, but did not hazard a guess as to Ford's chances of obtaining the nomination.

He said his study of conditions in Germany had convinced him that the only solution would be receivership for Germany.

"We place a bankrupt firm in receivership for the benefit of its creditors and we should do the same with a nation," he said.

"Germany can pay; I don't know whether she can pay the reparation figure determined by the commission in May, 1921, but she can be placed in a position where she can pay a good deal at any rate."

Among Coleman's effects was found a paper which a police officer began reading. Before he had read two lines, Coroner E. J. Taylor silenced the officer and took charge of the paper refusing to divulge its contents.

SEVERAL ARRESTED IN TWO DAY RAID

(By the Associated Press)

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Oct. 10.—Cedar Rapids officers making a dry raid arrested Clarence Heyton, relative of Postmaster Langworthy, after they claimed they found a still in the post office building. Six Jones county farmers were arrested in the two day raid.

Garrett Weirs, one of the farmers was arrested according to officers while he was trying to sell liquor to them. He had an automobile filled with liquor at the time, they said, and Weirs is said to have admitted owning five stills. The officers said he did most of the manufacturing the others furnishing sugar.

With these arrests it is claimed a ring which supplied retailers in Jones, Dubuque, Cedar Lynn and Tama counties has been broken up.

The other farmers arrested are F. W. Hults, Henry Ufers, Garrett Gerdes, Louis McBride and William House.

Weirs was held to the grand jury on $500 bond. The others demanded a preliminary hearing.

TESTIFIES AUTOS STOLEN WITH OWNERS' CONSENT

(By the Associated Press)

BOSTON, Oct. 10.—Cases in which automobiles are stolen with the consent of their owners total 70 per cent of all auto thefts in the country, according to the testimony here in the Federal District Court by Joseph P. Dumas, Boston manager for the Automobile Underwriters' association. He was a witness in the trial of Louis Schwartz, John Silverman and Abraham Elpert of Boston, and John J. Keffler of New York, for alleged conspiracy to transport stolen cars from New York.

Seventy thousand cars were stolen in the United States in 1922, Dumas declared under gross examination. He said he referred to insured cars, but that his company was often interested in cars that had not been insured.

The government charges that 16 cars figuring in the present indictment were shipped from one state to another without the knowledge of the defendants that they were stolen.

STOKES TRIAL PROGRESSING IN NEW YORK

Unexpected Witness
Put on Stand by W.
E. D. Stokes

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A court room crowd of the curious today watched Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes meet with sobbed out shouts of "that's a lie" the repeated but almost instantly retracted insinuations of intimacy made by Elmer Henshaw, her former chauffeur, who took the stand as an unexpected star witness for W. E. D. Stokes in the retrial of the wealthy hotel owner's divorce. Tears rolled down the cheeks of Mr. Stokes, seated a few yards from his wife and he covered his face with nervous hands.

Henshaw, whose appearance took the defense completely by surprise, had testified to have driven Mrs. Stokes frequently to the apartment house at 13 East 35th Street, where Edgar T. Wallace, one of the co-respondents lived.

Samuel Untermyer, chief counsel for Mrs. Stokes, asked him why he wrote her, instead of his employer, when he decided to leave his job.

Chauffeur Testifies

"I was very friendly with Mrs. Stokes," the witness answered. "Do you mean anything by that?" the attorney asked.

"I mean just what I said."

"Then you mean to imply—?"

"Yes, I do."

Mrs. Stokes' mother, Mrs. A. S. Miller, of Denver jumped to her feet and advanced toward the witness stand, both hands threateningly in the air. Friends held her back.

"That's a lie. You're a dirty liar," she shouted.

Mrs. Stokes, her body shaking with sobs, stood and yelled: "That's a lie and you know it. Make him take that back. He'll take that back or I'll kill him."

Mr. Untermyer was questioning the witness in a second.

"Did you mean to say you committed adultery with Mrs. Stokes?" he shouted.

"No. Absolutely not, Henshaw answered."

"Then did I understand you to say you had improper relations with her?" asked the lawyer.

"Yes, I did," came the answer.

"She was giving me money to frame up Mr. Stokes and get a divorce. That's what I meant by improper relations."

"I never gave him a cent in my life," Mrs. Stokes shouted.

The crowd was visibly angered. One of the juryman's fist clenched half rose as the ready to spring over the rail at the stand.

When Henshaw walked past Mrs. Miller at the rear recess she again had to be restrained.

Henshaw later denied he had taken any money except his salary from Mrs. Stokes.

KELS SENTENCED TO DIE ON GALLOWES

(By the Associated Press)

STOCKTON, Calif., Oct. 10.—Death on the gallows at Folsom State Prison, Friday, January 4, was the sentence imposed today on Alexander E. Kels, Lodi, California, butcher, who confessed to the murder of Howard Meservy known also as Ed Meservy, aged itinerant laborer on the Kels ranch in the prosperous Lodi district, September 12.

Kels is insured for $80,000 and the policies are said to contain a provision that if he meets with a violent death that his beneficiary will receive $105,000. He has a wife, who is seriously ill, and a daughter 11 years old.

Neither have as yet been told that Kels has been arrested, the last word they received of him being that he had been found after he was supposed to have been burned to death in the fire that all but incinerated his victim.

Kels told Judge Young Monday that he was greatly in debt and he killed the man whom he had hired to work on his ranch thinking the body was that of Kels and that Mrs. Kels would obtain the insurance and settle his affairs.

BODY OF FOUNDER OF THREE STATES FOUND WEDNESDAY

Remains of General Oglethorpe with Those of Wife Buried in England will be Brought to Georgia and Reinterred with Imposing Ceremonies—Dead More Than Century

(By the Associated Press)

CRANHAM, England, Oct. 10.—Resting in a lead-lined elm wood coffin, almost as well preserved as if it had been deposited yesterday, the body of General James F. Oglethorpe was found late this afternoon in a brick vault under the floor of the little parish church here where it was interred 138 years ago. The body of Lady Oglethorpe, who died two years later, rests beside that of her husband in a similar coffin. Large bronze name plates give unmistakable evidence of the identity of the bodies. Time and the elements have apparently placed only a light hand on the venerable Briton, who laid the foundations of the present American states of Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi for the only sign of decay in the coffins is a slight break in a seam at the head of the general's coffin, which exposes to view the inner wooden casket and lead lining.

Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president of Oglethorpe University was the first to enter the vault. He was followed by the Rev. Leslie Wright, the rector.

"History in Making." "You have made history," was the rector's laconic remark to Dr. Jacobs after the coffins had been examined, the tomb will be temporarily closed for one week so as to permit the chancellor of the diocese to give notice to all the parishioners of the intention to remove the bodies to America. If no objection is raised the bodies will be taken from the vault on October 18, while solemn religious ceremony will be held in the presence of Ambassador Harvey, representatives of the British high ecclesiastical authorities. The long journey to Savannah will begin soon after that.

A religious assembly in Kentucky has just been debating the question whether the use of musical instruments in a church is moral. No editor likes to butt in on that kind of discussion, but it is a well established fact that the Devil doesn't take much interest in church organs.

Governor McCray of Indiana is in a bad way financially and although several times a millionaire it looks as if his creditors will have difficulty in untangling the complications. The slump in farm affairs is given as a reason for this financial downfall, but with evidence indicating loans from more than 200 banks of the state the governor's unprofitable operations must have been going on for a number of years.

J. E. Osborne has been a useful member of the county board and his experience during the three years about to close will make him the more valuable as a member of the board if chosen for another term. At the September term of the board funds were available for the payment of all claims against the county. It was not customary several years ago to be able to pay the September county claims without borrowing. Mr. Osborne and his associates have used economy in the handling of public business of the same kind that can properly apply to one's own affairs. While using economy Mr. Osborne has not been without vision and the forward look. He has helped save the county money, yet he has kept in view better service for the county and a substantial improvement program.

STREET CARS FLOURISHING
The American Railway association reveals the fact that trolley cars are far from obsolete. They are not even obsolescent. Last year electric railways in this country carried 15,317,000 passengers—or at least, that many fares were collected. That is more than ever before, representing a gain of over six per cent above the previous record.

The showing is especially surprising when one considers the tremendous increase last year in the output of automobiles.

Evidently the motor car is not going to elbow the trolley car into oblivion for some years yet, at least. The eventual outcome may be a triumph for both—street cars with gas engines for motive power, or motor busses on rails.

DRY CO-OPERATION
At the coming session of state governors, to be held in Washington, representatives of the federal government will make an urgent appeal for better co-operation in prohibition enforcement. The attorney general and prohibition commissioner particularly will set forth the situation as they see it.

Complaint is made at Washington that some of the states are so lax and unwilling in their own enforcement work that federal agents must be assigned to mere police jobs, whereas their proper function is to look out for interstate liquor shipments and big conspiracies against the dry laws.

It is expected that after the governors themselves have been lectured about their duties in this matter, they will be asked to assemble the sheriffs, police chiefs and mayors of their own states and lecture them likewise. Thus, it is hoped, better co-operation may be obtained between the federal, state and local authorities.

It is unlikely that prohibition will ever become really effective without such co-operation.

THE HARDING MEMORIAL
President Coolidge and his cabinet have given consideration to the erection of a memorial to the late President Harding. It is said that a corporation may be formed, headed by Mr. Coolidge and the cabinet members, for the purpose of raising funds and directing the building. It has been suggested that Marion, O.,

Mr. Harding's home, be selected as the site.

It is a worthy project and one that will be assured of success the moment it is launched. Probably President Harding put into effect economies of administration that have saved and are saving billions of dollars to the taxpayers of the United States. But his policies brought relief from taxes not only to Americans but to millions of subjects of other powers. Through the elimination of naval competition in big ships, the people of Great Britain, France, Japan, Italy, and, indirectly, the inhabitants of every other country that pretends to support a navy, however small, have been saved from huge expenditures for warships.

Other nations are indebted to the Harding policies not only for naval taxes, but also for the elimination of causes for war, a relief which they will enjoy for years to come. Controversies with Japan were settled, and the Japanese relieved of all fear of war with this country. The five small republics of Central America were induced by President Harding to sign a joint arbitration and arms limitation treaty that will put an end to the perennial wars that have afflicted that region. Mr. Harding was accepted as arbitrator in the dispute between Chile and Peru over the Tacna-Arica territory, which role will now be filled by President Coolidge. In Haiti order has been restored and the people are more contented than they have been for years past. In Cuba civil war was narrowly averted by Mr. Harding's selection of General Crowder to act as adviser in the island's affairs. Our readiness to abide by our own treaties of arbitration was exemplified when Mr. Harding ordered the payment to Norway of a $12,000,000 judgment rendered by The Hague court, although Secretary Hughes declared it to be contrary to the evidence and to international law.

When the Harding memorial corporation is perfected many people hope that subscriptions from foreign sources will be acceptable as those from Americans. Great Britain, France, Japan, Italy, Norway, Chile, Peru, Haiti, Cuba, and the five Central American Republics were all direct beneficiaries of the Harding administration.

ASHLAND RESIDENT LAID TO REST TUESDAY

Funeral of Late Mrs. Lillie May Bool Held at M. E. Church—Death Was Sudden
Ashland, Oct. 9.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Lillie May Bool was held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. J. Edward Artz of Onarga, Ill., in charge, assisted by Rev. J. A. Biddle. The death of Mrs. Bool came very suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Smith, Saturday evening, October 6, 1923, at 11:15 o'clock p. m., aged 54 years, four months and 24 days.

The deceased had not been ill and the news of her death came as a great shock to her many friends. Surviving are one daughter and one son, Mrs. Cleve Smith of Ashland and Emory Bool of Marseilles, Ill., and two grandchildren. A large assembly of friends was in attendance and the services were of a very impressive character. The many beautiful floral offerings were cared for by Mrs. Tom Shelton and Mrs. Ida Crum. Interment was made in Ashland cemetery.

COOLIDGE ADDRESSES FARMERS CONGRESS

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 10.—Declaring that in almost every country the agricultural industry confronts a menacing situation, President Coolidge expressed hope in a message read at the opening sessions of the seventeenth annual International Farm Congress here today that deliberations might be directed toward broad considerations which would make conclusions of the assembly helpful to authorities in formulating their policies.

"An international consideration of agricultural problems is particularly appropriate now," the message declares, "for the agricultural crisis, in truth, is international as well as domestic character. It seems that in almost every country which has a considerable variety of industrial enterprises, agriculture in particular confronts a difficult and in many cases a menacing situation. Of all the productive activities it seems most universally to have suffered by reason of the war." Advance registration of the congress included 600 persons.

AMBASSADOR HARVEY PLANNING FAREWELLS

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(By the A. Press)—American Ambassador George Harvey plans to say fare well to royalty at the court of St. James in time to eat Thanksgiving turkey and pumpkin pie at Peacham, Vermont, his home town. His sailing date depends upon the time of King George's return to London, but otherwise the retiring ambassador is winding up his affairs preparatory to his home going.

Yesterday, in accordance with custom his portrait, painted by Howard Chandler Christy was hung in a prominent place in the embassy along with those of his predecessors. Mr. Harvey's picture, which is placed between those of the late Joseph E. Choate and the late Whitelaw Reid is unique in that it is the ambassador's first canvas of an ambassador done by an American artist.

MAN ADMITS HE SAW GIRL KILLED
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 10.—Ernest Facenda, 29, of this city, admitted today, according to detectives he was a witness to the killing of Emma Dickson, fifteen years old high school girl whose body was found in a clump of trees near her home at Bricksboro, N. J., Sept. 22, nine days after she disappeared. Facenda was held in 500 bail for a further hearing next Wednesday.

The arrest of Facenda, the first in the case was declared by Peter Sheller, detective, to be vital to the speedy apprehension of the person or persons believed to have been responsible for the tragedy.

BETRAYS ITS OWN KIND Frigate Bird is Well Described When It is Called a Feathered Villain, Says Writer.

The frigate bird of the South sea is a thief and a traitor. Figuratively speaking, he flies pretty low. He robs the poor seagulls of their fish, and, not content with doing that, he lures them and many other birds into the hands of the natives. The greatest ambition of a native of Nauru island, says a writer in the Bulletin of the Pan-American Union, is to own more frigate birds than anyone else in his village. Nauru, by the way, is a mere dot of land between the Marshall and the Solomon Islands. It has a native population of some two thousand persons.

Frigate birds, uninteresting and always apparently asleep on the roost, are capable of almost human cunning when trained as decoys to capture other birds. On festival days in Nauru whole villages meet to contest the supremacy of their decoy birds. The king of the island presides over the tournament.

Sometimes when the decoys are set free not a wild bird can be seen or heard. Up soar the decoys until lost to sight. Then presently the screams of wild birds rend the air, and flocks of them appear, and in the company of the decoys approach the roosts that the natives have built for them. Soon, however, the wild birds become suspicious and try to soar away. Then the real labor begins. With open bills and widespread wings the frigate birds attack their victims, bar their way, head them off and circle round and above them until they have driven them, bullied and exhausted, to the roosts.

At the end of the tournament a count is made, and the village and the village with the largest number of captive birds to their credit are publicly praised by the king. Thereupon feasting and dancing begin.

THANKS IN WRONG QUARTER Little Marie Gave Altogether Undue Credit to the Dignified Head of the Flock.

A nursery governess tells of two children, once in her care, who never forgot to be polite. An amusing feature of their walks was Willie's trouble with his overshoes. They were of a size out of all proportion to his feet, and hampered his movements greatly. He was continually taking headers, but was usually laughing when the governess picked him up. Then the little fellow would carefully brush the snow from the bottom of her skirt with his red mittens.

Marie, as well as Willie, showed the instinctive courtesy of a kind nature. She had expressed on her the propriety of thanking everyone who did her a kindness, and Marie always tried to comply. They had on one occasion talked of the various farm animals, and of how much we owed to them. At dinner Marie looked at her egg for some moments without eating it, and then slipped quietly from her chair. "Where are you going?" she was asked. "I am going to thank Mr. Rooster for laying me this nice egg," explained Marie. —Exchange.

CLAIMS DAYLIGHT SAVING REDUCED N. Y. DEATH RATE

Address at National Recreation Congress, Springfield

(By the Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 10.—Daylight saving time has cut the death rate in New York City and jazz is just music in its swaddling clothes.

These two points were advanced today in addresses delivered at the tenth National Recreation Congress in this city.

Acting Mayor Murray Hulbert, is author of the statement that daylight saving time in New York had reduced its mortality rate. The address was delivered by John J. Downing, supervisor of recreation Brooklyn.

Minimum Mortality.
Daylight saving months of July, August and September since its adoption in 1918 have registered the minimum mortality rate for the year and show the greatest decline in deaths of any period the last ten years, according to Mr. Hulbert, facts which are vouched for, he stated, by one of the largest insurance companies.

This is because daylight saving provides an extra hour for recreation in the open air, which provides a welcome sedative for tired nerve and furnishes a needed respite for the tasks of the day to come said, Mr. Hulbert.

Defines Jazz.
Peter W. Dykema, community music expert of the University of Wisconsin, in declaring jazz is music in swaddling clothes, said: "Yes, we have no bananas," has proved one thing, "that America wants to sing and there is no reason why we shouldn't sing such a song of the moment then cast it aside."

A committee on people's songs, however, is working to help composers produce songs which can be just as popular, but because they are better music will be more lasting, and the enjoyment to be gotten from them become something more than passing fancy.

NAVY SECRETARY TO UNDERGO OPERATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Secretary of the Navy Denby will undergo an operation on his right leg tomorrow morning, he announced on his arrival from Lakehurst, N. J., where he officiated at the rechristening of the ZR-1 which was made the USS Shenandoah.

Several days ago, "while playing baseball with some children," as the secretary put it, he severed the achilles tendon of his right leg. The injury became exceedingly painful today and after making a flight in the Shenandoah with Mrs. Denby and several relatives and friends, Mr. Denby came to New York for the operation for which he had arranged.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT IS FILED AGAINST WOMAN

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Clara Dunlap Pease, who has kept a $300,000 inheritance from her husband, Edwin A. Pease, wealthy Aurora, Ill., manufacturer by filing and dismissing divorce suits, was made defendant in a suit for $100,000 damages filed today by Miss Harriet J. Setzer, named in one of Mrs. Pease's bills.

Miss Setzer declared in her bill that Mrs. Pease's charge that she went to Florida with Pease and later lived with him in Aurora has damaged her reputation to that extent.

Pease was killed $300,000 by his father after he and his wife shall have lived together in peace for six months or after they have been divorced.

Mrs. Pease, who has won a separate maintenance suit and had a divorce action pending, withdrew the bill and said she would continue filing and dismissing divorce bills indefinitely to keep Pease from his inheritance.

M'CRAY WORKING ON UNTANGLING AFFAIRS

(By the Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 10.—A statement by Governor McCray making known his willingness to appear before the Marion county grand jury which is investigating his transactions with the Marion, Indiana, National bank and the service of summons on the executive to appear before the federal court at Fort Wayne, where bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted against him were developments today in the executive's tangled financial affairs.

The governor today declined to comment on testimony given at Kentland, Indiana, yesterday by business associates at a preliminary hearing on a number of civil suits filed against him there in which they denied that he had signed notes said to have been endorsed and sold by him, stating the court was the proper place for his story to be told.

PLACE NAMES FROM SIOUX

Distinction Accorded to Great Tribes Which Long Opposed Advancement of White Settlers.

With the possible exception of the much less generally known Ojibway, the Sioux is the largest tribe of American Indians north of Mexico, says a bulletin of the National Geographical society.

The unforgettable names and the dramatic incidents that the history of the Sioux has yielded are sufficient alone to give them a prominent place whenever Indians are the subject of thought. Red Cloud, Crazy Horse, Rain-in-the-Face, and the redoubtable Sitting Bull were Sioux. The Sioux have had a greater hand at furnishing our best-known geographic names than any other division of Indians. Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Omaha, Arkansas, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri are a few examples, most of them the names of Sioux subdivisions.

The Sioux call themselves "Dakotas." "Sioux" is a contraction of a French corruption of an Ojibway word meaning "little snakes" or "enemies." Until comparatively recently the Sioux have been consistent enemies of the white Americans. They assisted the English both during the American Revolutionary war and the War of 1812, and practically every advance westward which the white settlers have since made has been vigorously contested by the Sioux.

AUDIENCE JOINED IN LAUGH

Sound in Theater Described as a "Sort of Chaotic Shriek, Not in the Least Human."

It happened at a performance of "Israel in Egypt" during the Handel festival of 1870. The queen was present, and Costa, the conductor, conceived the happy idea that the audience should join with chorus and orchestra in the performance of the national anthem, in honor of the national anthem.

The idea was all right, but the final hitch came when the drummer could not hear what Costa said, and the latter tried to convey his meaning by guttural vocal sounds, while he beat an imaginary drum with his baton! Chorus and orchestra gazed at these unseemly antics at a loss, and then someone uttered:

"It was enticing; and in less than a moment, five thousand people were helpless with laughter. The infection spread to the audience, and all sense of decorum fled as the laughter swelled from five to thirty-two thousand voices.

"It was a sort of chaotic shriek, not in the least human, but worth hearing for once," wrote a spectator of the scene.

Thankful for Typewriter.
We wonder how folks ever got along without an instrument which produces legible manuscript. It may in time reduce the knowledge of chirography to the mere matter of penning one's own name, but how much time it has saved ready from deciphering illegible writing is beyond computation. The typewriter makes for speed, but the greatest boon it conferred has been in removing the need for the scrawl with the pen.

While many of the present-day utilities which are indispensable have had their development in the last half century, for those whose job it is to make records or grind out "copy" none is entitled to a higher rank than the typewriter, which produces that which may be read easily. And from those on whom falls the duty of reading what others have written, blessings are showered on those who have brought the typewriter into such general use.—Exchange.

Cause for Grief.
The little boy with the rather grubby face was crying lustily in the street when a kind old lady, who happened to be passing, stopped and asked him the cause of his grief.

"Boo, hoo! 'Cause I've lost a penny," was the tearful rejoinder. "Mother gave it to me and I can't find it anywhere."

"Ah, never mind," said the kind old soul, as she took her purse out of her pocket. "Here's another penny for you."

The child instantly stopped his howling and took the penny in his grimy hand. The old lady passed on, but she had not gone far when she heard howls louder than ever coming from the boy. Retracing her steps she asked the reason of his renewed lamentations.

"I'm crying 'cause—'cause if I hadn't lost that first penny I should have had two now!"

Deserved the Retort.
A boor, placed next to a beautiful woman at a dinner, seemed determined to say something caustic before the soup course was finished. He tried several remarks. These failing, he turned to her and demanded: "Don't you think brains are wasted on a pretty woman?"

She took this under consideration during the fish course and then responded: "Well, it might be better to give them to someone who really needs them."

No Apparent Difference.
"Ah, Mr. Gloom! You do not seem to have changed in the least in all these years," said Ben away.

"No," replied J. Fuller Gloom. "I am often told that my disposition is as infernally mean as it ever was."—Kansas City Star.

GIRL USES HAT AS "BANK"

Can Draw Against Depositary on Top of Her Head Any Old Time She Likes.

It was already time to start for the theater. But Kathleen took her best hat down from the crowded closet shelf and frantically began to rip at the lining.

"But, my dear," her friend reminded her, "there isn't time to make over your hat tonight. What are you doing?"

By this time Kathleen had got her hand in under the lining and had extracted—a $5 bill, relates the New York Sun and Globe.

"What an amazing hat," remarked her friend. "It seems to be like the miraculous pitcher in which there was always sustenance."

But the girl who has lived two years in a New York apartment and whose salary is given her in a little sealed envelope on the 1st and 15th of each month, explained: "You see, I can't possibly afford a bank account. There isn't any burglar-proof place in this apartment. I always lose my pocket-book. And I'm always running out of change in the most heartless places. So there came the idea of making my hats depositories. I keep $5 or $10 in each change in this way I always have money with me. And what robber would think of looking there for loot?"

And best of all, I often forget how much I have and think it all gone—when I find $10 in the far edge of some lining."

"The only objection is once I gave a hat away without examining the crown. And ever since I have been about $10 short."

RICE JAVA'S MAIN CROP

Cultivation of the Staple a Slow Process, All the Work Being Done by Hand.

Rice is the most important of all crops in Java. The most productive method of cultivating it is by means of "sawahs" or wet fields. The sawahs consist of plots of ground surrounded by little dykes which allow water either to be run in or off. Where the land is sloping the fields are formed into a succession of terraces, causing the water to trickle from one to the other.

Rice is sown by the natives by hand. After sowing, the fields are flooded by day and drained by night for eight or ten days, says the Detroit News. In about six weeks the spikes are replanted in groups of two or three stems together, each group being stuck into the muddy soil at a distance of about one inch apart. The soil is then flooded and drained every two or three days, and at the end of the fourth or fifth month, after replanting, the crop is ready to be gathered.

The harvest is gathered stem by stem, the natives standing and cutting them at a height of two feet eight inches from the ground.

The rice, after being stacked in bundles and dried, is put into a trough and a stamp or pestle is used to separate the grain from the straw. The grain is husked by means of a large mortar in which disks of stone, iron or wood are kept moving either by buffalo traction or water power.

Was Late With Her Gossip.
Mrs. Doherty was the gossip of the suburb of Wimblesyead, and whenever any of his neighbors met her they always prepared to receive a nice titbit of scandal about some of their friends.

Mrs. Gadabout loved gossip nearly as much as did Mrs. Doherty, and so she was extremely pleased when she saw the latter lady coming along in her direction one morning when she was out shopping.

"Did you tell Mrs. Newife that you saw her husband in town with a strange woman?" Mrs. Gadabout asked when they had exchanged greetings.

"Yes," was the reply, "and I wish I hadn't. She just smiled at me in her wise way and said: 'Yes, I know all about that. My husband saw you and knew you'd come straight back to tell me, so he telephoned the news to me himself.'"

Hoist by His Own Petard.
A working sense of fun is a good thing to possess, for sometimes the humor of a situation cannot take the place of cash there is no compensation at all. A case in point is that of H. D. Trall, an English litterateur. One of Trall's earliest journalistic commissions was to write a series of articles in a paper edited by a lady well known years ago as a strong advocate of "women's rights," as the phrase went, on the anomalies and injustices of the British law relating to woman's property. The articles were duly written and published, but the remuneration agreed upon was not forthcoming. After repeated but fruitless demands for payment Trall brought a suit against the lady, who successfully invoked against her contributor the law she had engaged him to attack.

And the Hunter Couldn't Answer.
A hunter and a golfer were at it hammer and tongs. "To thunder with hunting," said the golfer. "I can buy all the meat I want in a butcher shop, and it's better than you can shoot."

"Is that so?" said the hunter. "Can you buy jacksnipe in a butcher shop? Can you buy venison? Can you buy canvasback?"

"Sometimes," said the golfer. "And sometimes not. But can you go hunting and shoot a pound of pork sausage?"

Good a Guess as Any.
Blinks—Who do you suppose started this "go-getter" stuff?

Jinks—Dunno, unless it was Mohammed when he went to the mountain.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mrs. Charles Quigg of Virginia was shopping in the city Wednesday.

William Deaton was among the visitors in the county seat from Litchberry yesterday.

U. S. GOD'S COUNTRY SAYS SEN. M'KINLEY

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 10.—"When you compare the United States and Europe you realize that this is God's country," Senator William B. McKinley, recently returned from a tour of Europe, declared here tonight in an address to delegates attending an state convention of county officers. His address and one by C. C. Leforgee, prominent attorney, featured the evening session of the convention.

In commenting on conditions in Europe as he had found them during his recent tour, Senator McKinley said that he saw no prospect of a settlement of affairs abroad until peace and fair trade could come to some sort of an understanding. He touched on the unemployment evil as one of the most serious now confronting nations abroad.

FILIPINOS WORKING FOR INDEPENDENCE

MANILA, Oct. 10.—Leaders in the fight for independence for the Philippines have decided to carry their campaign into the United States. It was announced today that Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine senate and either Manuel Roxas, speaker of the house of representatives or Sergio Osmeña, who formerly held that position and three other members of the legislature would leave for the United States during the first week in November.

The Filipino leaders it was announced will tour the United States remaining there until after the 1924 election working for independence. They will also demand the recall of Governor General Leonard Wood and the appointment of a Filipino governor.

MEXICAN STATESMAN ARRESTED IN EAST

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 10.—Emeterio de la Garza, Mexican statesman and candidate for the presidency of that country was arrested in Washington tonight and brought to Baltimore on a charge of obtaining money by means of false representations. He was charged with having obtained $150 by means of a sight draft on National Bank of Baltimore on June 23 last, according to the charge. The accused man declared that the charges are the result of a misapprehension on his part, as he believed the draft had been taken care of by his brother in Mexico, on whose name it had been made out. He displayed a large sum of money in bank notes as evidence that he could and would and could make good the obligation.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for laxatives, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver stimulating them to natural action clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do what which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowels and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

OPEN SHOP POLICY STARTED BLOODSHED

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 10.—Bloodshed marked the inauguration of the stevedoers open shop policy for longshoremen here late today when a truck load of negro laborers returning from the Enclave Pier, where they had replaced some longshoremen fired upon by unidentified negroes in an automobile.

William H. H. Ashley, negro was fatally wounded, dying two hours after reaching a hospital, and Ernest Jackson, negro, was shot in the knee.

Two negroes, both of whom police claim have admitted that they were striking longshoremen are held for investigation in connection with the shooting. Five men are said to have been in the attacking party.

SHALE EXPLOSION CAUSES ONE DEATH

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 10.—Shale believed to have been smoldering in a pile for several years, this afternoon exploded at the Peerless Coal company mine north of this city and caused the death of H. A. Sticker, 47, a resident of Alton.

Sticker was engaged in handling a steam shovel scooping the shale from a pile to an empty car. When the shovel struck the side of the pile a blast followed and red hot coals from the inner of the pile shot up like a volcanic eruption. Hot shale fell on Sticker and burned him so badly that he died a short time later in a local hospital.

Social Events

Aid to Meet.

The Ladies' Aid of Literberry Baptist church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Underbrink. A special program of interest has been prepared and a large attendance of members and guests is expected.

Pastor's Aid Held

All Day Meeting.

Pastor's Aid Society of Grace church had an all day sewing in the church parlors Wednesday. At three o'clock the regular monthly business session was held. The devotions were in charge of Mrs. Berry. December 6 was the date chosen by the society for the Annual Bazaar and dinner. Miss Mary Wadsworth was appointed chairman of a committee to secure fruit for Passavant hospital.

It was voted that the sum of $2.50 be given each month to help furnish milk for the Free Kindergarten. After a social hour the society adjourned.

Sinclair Country Club in Meeting.

The Sinclair Country Club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Von McClure. A paper on Italy was read by Mrs. Lester Martin. Mrs. Charles Robinson was voted into the club as a new member. The program was followed with a social hour, during which the hostesses served delicious refreshments. Guests present at the meeting included Mrs. Will Shibe, Mrs. Edward Armstrong and Miss May Martin.

Arcadia Aid Met in City.

The Ladies' Aid of Arcadia Methodist church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Clyde Roudell, 828 West North street. About twenty members and several guests were present at the meeting. A program of music and readings was given. Mrs. Earl Rexroat recited "Little Orphan Annie," and Mrs. Charles Clark gave a "Sketch of James Whitcomb Riley."

It was decided to hold the open meeting on the second Wednesday in November at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Thompson near Arcadia. Committees to arrange for the affair were named as follows:

General committee—Mrs. Flora Nicholas, Mrs. Nate Neill and Mrs. Joe Ryman.
Entertainment—Mrs. A. E. Obermeyer, Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Earl Rexroat, and Mrs. O. G. Dinwiddie.

Wednesday Class Met

The Wednesday Class met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Farrell on West College Ave. The program for the meeting was based on a current topic, which was handled quite admirably by Miss Marie Fairbank, with the assistance of Miss McCune and Mrs. Applebee. After the program, delightful refreshments were served by the hostess of the day.

Past Pochontas Club Plans Work

The members of the Past Pochontas Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ollie Proffitt on Webster avenue. The meeting was for the purpose of discussing the routine of business for the year. After the business session there was a social hour at which time the hostess served refreshments.

Gave Five Hundred Party

Miss Hazel Strawn entertained a number of friends Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Strawn on South East street. The honored guests of the occasion were Miss Marie Arnold of Mexico, Mo., and Mrs. Ralph Olliphant, who are guests of Miss Strawn.

The evening was spent pleasantly in playing five hundred. After the card party Miss Strawn served a very dainty luncheon, using in her decorations a color scheme of yellow and white.

Service Star Legion to Meet

The first monthly meeting of the Service Star Legion will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carriel on West College Avenue.

A most interesting program has been planned, the most important of which will be an address given by Dr. Andrew K. Rule of the faculty of Illinois College. After the program there will be a brief social hour, at which time Mrs. Carriel will be assisted in serving by Mrs. W. D. Roberts.

Liberty Club Enjoyed Program

The members of the Liberty Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Phillips on East North Street. The meeting was entirely a social one and the entertainment committee had planned a number of games and contests, from which those present gained much enjoyment. During the social hour dainty refreshments were served.

The guests of the occasion were: A. G. Phillips, Mrs. Clarence Siegfried, Mrs. Robert Mann and Mrs. Everett Mann.

Entertained at Country Home

A weiner and marshmallow roast was given last evening by Miss Marie Walbaum and William Walbaum, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Walbaum, who reside east of the city.

The affair was a very delightful one and enjoyed by the following group of young people: Misses Frances Cox, Hazel Yeck, Mildred Devine, Mae Gebert, Lois Zachary, Eleanor McGinnis, Pauline Leonard and Chris Haneline. Clyde Zachary, Earl Davis, Reid Mitchell, William Saner, Leo Baxter and Maurice Reid.

Brooklyn Aid Society to Meet

The regular birthday social of the Brooklyn church Ladies Aid will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Bond on Lorton street.

The program which has been planned for this meeting is one of unusual interest; the following numbers are included in it:

A song by the Aid members.
Debate: Which does the most good: the public library or the moving picture show? Mrs. William Bond will argue the question taking the side in favor of the library and Mrs. Charles Sheppard will argue in favor of the movies.

Mrs. J. E. Bossarte will give a paper written on the subject of the Ladies Aid.

After the program there will be a social hour, when refreshments will be served by Mrs. Bond.

Missionary Society

Elected Officers

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Brooklyn church held a business meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Randle. Plans for the coming year's study were discussed and it was decided to take up the book "Creative Forces in Japan." The following officers were named:

President—Mrs. G. W. Randle.
Vice president—Mrs. Everett Whitlock.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. Charles Curtis.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. J. A. Walters.

Treasurer—Mrs. John Kastrup.
Extension Secretary—Miss Margaret Jefferson.

Mite Box Secretary—Mrs. Mary Moon.

Superintendent of Little Light Bearers—Mrs. John Kastrup.

Centenary League

Cabinet in Meeting

The newly elected cabinet of Centenary Epworth League held its first meeting last night at the church. Plans for the coming year were discussed, and the prospects for the work were encouraging. It was definitely announced that a union young people's service would be held next Sunday evening at Westminster church. The Centenary League members are to gather at the church at 6 o'clock and go in a body to this meeting. Rev. C. D. Robertson was present at the meeting last night.

President—Miss Esther Wetzel.
Four vice presidents—George Metcalf, Mabel Biggs, Harriet Six and Miss Cowgur.
Secretary—Treasurer—Lee Baldwin.

Planist—Freda Collins.
The department and finance committees were appointed as follows:

1st department—Helen Phelps and Theodore Wetzel.
2nd department—Irene Keenher and Edward Duncan.
3rd department—June Fee and Marjorie Biggs.
4th department—Cass Wetzel, Esther Collins, Harry Walker, William Johnson and Ernest Hoegland.

Finance Committee—Mildred Biggs, Edwin Saye and Merle Martin.

The vice presidents are chairmen of the department committees. It was decided to hold a social on the last Thursday of each month. A halloween party in October is anticipated.

GOVERNMENT MONOPOLY IN BANKING IS URGED

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—A government monopoly in banking was urged today by Western Starr representing the National Committee of the Farmer-Labor Party who testified before a joint congressional committee investigating enlargement of the federal reserve system.

"No group of men," said Mr. Starr, "should ever be permitted to exercise the powers now vested in the federal reserve board."

The witness declared he favored having the banking of the nation entrusted to the postal system with the local postmasters acting as the government's agents in the receipt of deposits and the making of loans.

Mr. Starr was one of several witnesses who alternately defended and criticized the methods of the reserve board.

Good Blood Means Good Health

A clear, healthy skin, full of life and color, reflecting perfect health and energy has long been known to be a business and social asset.

If you are not the fortunate possessor of all the above—if you are suffering from skin eruptions of any description, it means that the blood is weak.

Pure blood, rich red in color and circulating freely, is the essential factor in the possession of perfect health.

When it becomes impoverished—thin and watery—it cannot supply proper nourishment and the body tissues become diseased.

This condition is ever ready to manifest itself and should be checked and treatment started with the first appearance of blood disorder.

In our estimation Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy is the one best treatment. It gets at the root of the trouble, cleanses the blood of impurities, increases the circulation, produces blood that is rich in nourishment—blood that will build up broken-down tissues.

It will not be long before you notice a decided improvement—you will feel the blood coursing through your veins, your appetite increased, the food will be absorbed in the proper manner and the skin will become clear and healthy.

You will never regret having used Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy—it will put you on your feet

FOUNDER'S DAY FETE AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Annual Founder's Day Celebration Held Yesterday—Local Alumnae, Former and Present Students Enjoyed Banquets and Programs

The seventy-seventh annual Founder's day program was carried out at Illinois Woman's college Wednesday. The chapel exercises in the morning were made especially interesting by the presence of Mrs. Belle Short Lambert, who has been abroad for a number of months and returned just in time to attend the Founder's day celebration.

Mrs. Lambert gave the principal address at the chapel hour. She gave some interesting facts about the early days of the college and later touched upon the real values of life in a way which very much impressed her auditors. In the evening the local alumnae and former students enjoyed a banquet at Centenary church, while the present students had a banquet and program in the college dining hall.

About 100 of the local alumnae and former students met at Centenary church for the banquet and the program which followed.

After the banquet came the candle lighting celebration, this interesting feature being in charge of Miss Louise Gates. The custom of lighting the candles has been followed for some years, and all over the United States wherever the Woman's college graduates are located, the yellow and blue candles were lighted last night at the same hour. Miss Gates then read a letter from Dr. J. R. Harker, who is spending a year's leave of absence in California. A number of college songs were sung under the leadership of Mrs. Truman Carter, with Mrs. J. Edgar Martin at the piano.

After the banquet in the college dining hall the present students participated in the candle lighting celebration. Dean Austin explaining the custom and later reading greetings from President Harker. The following program was then carried out:

The College Song—"By Statel Elms Surrounded."

Letter from President Harker. Toast—Our College: "Thy colors shall our emblem be—the yellow and the blue."—Beatrice Hasenstab, representing the students.

Song—"My Old Kentucky Home."

Toast—"Values," Miss Neville representing the faculty.

Song—"Auld Lang Syne."

Following the two separate banquets and programs all adjourned to the social room at the college where a joint program was carried out. All joined in various college songs after which a burlesque, "Wild Nell of the Prairie," was presented under the direction of Miss Mary Wadsworth. This was most cleverly conceived and presented in a way which would have done credit to professional comedians, and brought a storm of applause from the audience. This feature of the program was given by Mrs. Paul Samuel, Mrs. P. P. Thompson, Mrs. A. B. Applebee, Mrs. Earl Wiswell, Mrs. Chester Hemphill, Miss Genevieve Mount and Mrs. Mark Hunt with Mrs. W. G. Goebel at the piano.

Another interesting feature of the program was a pantomime entitled "Mary Jane." This was presented by a group of freshmen and proved highly entertaining. The celebration closed with the college song.

LIBERTY AID SOCIETY MET WITH MRS. KILLAM

The West Liberty Ladies' Aid Society met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ellen Killam on Webster avenue, with Mrs. Arthur Amon as assistant hostess. There were sixteen members and four guests present. Final plans were made for the Liberty Home coming to be held next Sunday morning at the West Liberty Church west of the city. All members of the church and friends are invited. There will be a short program given and a talk by some of the old members of the church after which a basket dinner will be served. The next meeting of the Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. John Boddy west of the city, on November 14th.

KIWANIANS WILL DEDICATE CABIN

Scout and Camp Fire Shelter East of City to be Dedicated This Evening With Supper and Program

The Boy Scout and Camp Fire Girls' Shelter, erected by the local Kiwanis club about five miles east of the city in a clump of native woods, is at last complete, and will be dedicated this evening with appropriate ceremonies. The club members and their guests will go to the camp and a buffet supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock.

The cabin consists of three rooms. It is a frame structure covered with asphalt shingle roofing. The large front room, containing a fireplace, will be used as a general assembly room and sleeping quarters. At the rear is a kitchen and dining room, and farther back, a small room for the camp guardian. A spacious Dutch oven has been erected on the outside of the building.

The supper this evening will consist of sandwiches, pickles, coffee, doughnuts, ice cream, and soft drinks, the last donated by the Coca-Cola Bottling Works. The various committees which have been at work on the building and the preparation of the dedication program are to be congratulated on their success. A large attendance and an enjoyable time are anticipated.

CHARGED WITH VIOLATING AUTO LAWS

A warrant was issued here yesterday for Louis E. Stroh of Decatur, charging him with violation of the state automobile law. The arrest was the result of a collision which occurred about 10 o'clock Tuesday night in Woodson.

Charles Finch and Ray Sorrells were driving a buggy which was struck by a truck driven by Stroh. Both boys were thrown out and somewhat injured.

After information had been sent to Jacksonville of the happening Deputy Sheriff Henry Strawn and Edgar Jones started in pursuit of Stroh and after several hours' journey overtook him near Patterson in Greene county, arrested him and brought him to Jacksonville.

Stroh is engaged in hauling apples from orchards in Greene or Calhoun counties to Decatur. It is said that he was traveling without lights when the accident happened.

H. M. TICKNOR HONORED BY PASADENA ELKS

A friend of T. M. Tomlinson in California recently sent him a copy of a Pasadena paper which presented a picture of Harry M. Ticknor, former Jacksonville resident, who was recently chosen to head the parade committee for the tournament of roses.

Mr. Ticknor, who while resident in Illinois was president of the state Elks association, has served in a similar capacity in California and at the last general convention of Elks held at Atlanta he was elected to the post of Esteemed Leading Knight. Thus Mr. Ticknor is second in command among the national officers of the fraternity.

The paper refers to him as a prominent attorney and one of Pasadena's leading citizens.

D. D. Wilson who a great many years ago worked as a printer on the Journal for a period of fourteen years, in the days when this paper was published as a weekly is in the city for a visit at the homes of his nephews, J. W. Breckon and James Kitcher.

With the exception of the past two years Mr. Wilson spent his entire life in this community, the past year having been spent in California. He has just arrived from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. L. O. Warren in Pennsylvania, and after the completion of his visit in Jacksonville, he plans to spend some time with another nephew in Murrayville and will return to his home in Denver Colorado, by way of St. Louis.

STAGE LEGAL BATTLE IN C. H. SWABY TRIAL

State Fire Prevention Division in Justice Court Loses Fight to Punish Local Produce Man for Refusal to Repair Building

A snappy legal battle was staged yesterday in the justice court of A. B. Opperman in the case of the State Department of Trade and Commerce vs. C. H. Swaby. It was a criminal proceeding in which the state was endeavoring to punish Swaby for non-compliance with an order of the state fire marshal to make certain repairs in the Platt building on South Mauvaister street, in which he was at the time conducting a poultry and egg business.

Some weeks ago Deputy Fire Marshal James Wise inspected the building and gave Swaby a written order to make certain changes to lessen the fire hazard. He was told to repair the rear stairs, which had fallen into decay; he was to remove lath and plaster or repair some to lessen the danger of lodgment for sparks; he was to tear off all loose paper from walls and ceiling of rooms 214 and 218; he was to repair places in outside walls where cement and brick had fallen out. Swaby was also ordered to have all wiring in the building enclosed in metal casings, according to the national electrical code. He was given thirty days in which to make these improvements.

According to Swaby's own testimony on the witness stand, he did not comply with the order. He stated that he was financially unable to do so. The legal clash came when Attorney W. T. Wilson for the defense made a motion to dismiss the case on the ground that the law under which it was being tried, was unconstitutional, and that the deputy marshal who signed the order had no legal status as a fire marshal. Attorney John P. Snigg, counsel for the fire prevention division of the state Department of Trade and Commerce, declared that the question was not one of its reasonableness or unreasonableness, but of compliance with the order of the fire marshal. Squire Opperman overruled the motion of the defense and declared the question at issue to be as stated by Attorney Snigg.

Mr. Swaby was put on the stand and testified that on Oct. 1, he had sold his business to a company from Bluffs and was now working on commission. He had, however, not moved from the building and admitted that he was still an occupant.

Arguments Made

In arguments on the case, State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson for the state told the jury that it was not their business to decide the constitutionality of the law but to decide the guilt of the defendant under the law.

Attorney Wilson, in speaking for the defense, quoted a decision of the supreme court handed down in 1919, to show that the law, which did not set forth rules under which the defendant was to act in complying with the order, was unconstitutional. He stated that no body outside the legislature had a right to make rules and regulations and fix penalties to govern the actions of individuals.

Attorney Snigg for the state declared that the state fire prevention division was trying to do the best for Jacksonville people. It was not considering the "dollar" of the defendants, but was trying to protect the whole population from a fire hazard which existed in the heart of the city.

It was the duty of the jury, if it found Swaby guilty, to assess a fine of $10 to $50 a day for each day of non-compliance with the fire marshal's order after the date of issue. However, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Those on the jury were William Megginson, Clyde Gray, Ray Algers, Tom Bush, Opal Taylor and John Hall.

STATION CONSOLIDATION IS NEAR AT HAND

The consolidation of the Alton and Burlington ticket offices in Jacksonville now seems to be an assured fact within a very few days. The Alton has consented to the construction of a temporary wooden platform between the Burlington tracks and the Alton depot, this platform to be used until it is possible to complete the laying of the pavement around the depot, the plans of which were approved some time ago.

POULTRY DEMONSTRATIONS

FUNERALS

Barr

Funeral services in memory of the late Samuel O. Barr took place Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence, 1209 West State street. A very large company of friends gathered, for Mr. Barr had been almost a life long resident of the city and was universally held in high esteem.

The services were conducted by Dr. Thomas W. Smith, pastor of Westminster church, and were marked by a simplicity quite in accord with the known wishes of the deceased. Dr. Smith read suitable passages of Scripture and then offered an earnest prayer.

From the house the long cortege moved to Diamond Grove cemetery. Members of Matt Starr post G. A. R. had part in the services, as Mr. Barr was a veteran of the war and allied with that organization.

The many beautiful flowers were cared for by Miss Mabel Reid, Mrs. Ellen R. Merrill, Mrs. Paul Samuel, Mrs. W. B. Young and Miss Anna Duer. The pall bearers were George S. Rogers, H. D. Dobyns, C. A. Fiedler, Haller Higgins, A. R. Taylor and Dr. W. B. Young.

Just arrived, new shipment of late style Velvet Hats trimmed in our work room at prices much lower than elsewhere.

ACHIEVEMENT TESTS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Tests in School Subjects Show Ability of Pupils and Suggest Teaching Methods

A number of interesting achievement tests in certain subjects have been conducted in the public schools during the past few weeks. These tests are bringing to light some facts regarding the ability of various groups of children and the difficulties they encounter in particular studies. By means of these results teachers are able to adapt their methods of teaching to the needs of certain groups.

Achievement tests in reading have brought to light four classes of readers in the classes: those who read rapidly, but with poor comprehension; those who read slowly, but comprehend well; those who read rapidly and with poor understanding; and those who read rapidly and well. In conducting a reading class, teachers are advised to adapt to their methods to the needs of each group. Those who read rapidly and well need little attention, but require much supplementary work. Other groups need drills in certain phases of the subject.

Achievement tests have also been given in Geography, among which is a place test, designed to find out how easily pupils locate places. Such a test makes clear the method which teachers have been using and shows whether it needs to be altered to get results. It has been the custom recently to stress human relations in Geography, rather than names and places. In some cases, the latter have been slighted and is necessary to stress this part of the subject slightly more to bring the pupil's knowledge up to the average.

LEGIONNAIRES LEAVE FOR CONVENTION

Jacksonville Post No. 279 American Legion will be represented by three members at the National Convention which convenes in San Francisco on Oct. 15 and closes on the 19th.

Harry Herring and William Meyer of Jacksonville and Dale White of Woodson left Tuesday evening for Springfield where they will take an Alton Special for Kansas City. Mrs. Herring left last week for the coast and will join Mr. Herring there and the party expect to spend some time sight seeing before returning to Jacksonville.

STATE A. H. T. A. TO HOLD ANNUAL MEET

Annual Session to be Held in Taylorville Oct. 17 and 18—Important Business Coming Before It.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill.—Methods of curbing law violation in its many phases will be discussed at the annual meeting of the Anti-Horse Thief association of Illinois, to be held here October 17 and 18.

With horse stealing a thing of the past, according to Sydney M. Holben of Edinburg, secretary of the order, many other forms of crime have now come to beset the farmer and the members of this organization. The automobile thief, the indiscriminate hunter and even the Volstead law violator are special objects of the association's work.

Reports of the work accomplished by the various lodges of the order throughout the state will occupy considerable time of the convention. The several lodges in this, Christian county, will be hosts at a banquet to the regular delegates in the basement of the Presbyterian church on the evening of the first day of the meeting. After the supper, candidates will be initiated.

New Bill Sponsored.
The organization is sponsoring a bill making it necessary for an automobile owner to have a certificate of ownership, patterned after a similar law in Missouri. Such an act failed of passage in the last Illinois legislature, and it is probable the convention this year will authorize another attempt in this direction, according to Mr. Holben.

"We no longer have any horse stealing," said Mr. Holben "but we are doing our best to assist each other in watching illegal hunting, and in running down any and all violations of the law, even violations of the Volstead law. We are endeavoring to have more stringent laws passed relating to the automobile. In addition to the automobile certificate bill, we have been for a state police bill and likely will pass resolutions advocating this legislation at the forthcoming convention."

The Anti-Horse Thief Association, founded in Clark County, Mo., in October 1854 by Major David McKee and others, is a fraternal order as well as a detective organization. It attempts to recover stolen property for its members and to bring the law violators to justice. The preamble of the order's constitution indicates its purpose in the following language:

"For the better protection of ourselves against the depredations of thieves, robbers, counterfeiters, incendiaries, tramps, and all other criminals, do hereby pledge ourselves to co-operate with and assist the civil authorities in the capture and prosecution of all such offenders and to aid each other in the recovery of stolen property."

DOMESTIC SCIENCE CLUB GAVE PROGRAM

Murrayville Women Met Wednesday at Home of Mrs. C. T. Daniel.

Murrayville, Oct. 10.—The Domestic Science Club held their regular meeting this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. T. Daniel, with Mrs. E. G. Jordan as hostess. The following program was carried out:

WILL DEDICATE TWO BRONZE STATUTES

Impressive Ceremonies When State Pays Honor to Governors Richard Yates and John M. Palmer.

Invitations have been issued by Governor Len Small for the dedication of the bronze statues of former Governors Richard Yates and John M. Palmer, the dedicatory ceremonies to take place on the grounds of the state capitol Tuesday afternoon, October 16, at 2:30 o'clock. Department Commander O. C. Smith, Department Quartermaster Edwin C. Vickery, and Department Adjutant W. A. Westrope of the United States War Veterans, have received invitations and will attend, as will also other department officers of the U. S. W. V. from the different parts of the state.

The dedicatory services will be presided over by Governor Small and the invocation will be by the Rev. H. C. First of Rock Island, who is Department Chaplain of the G. A. R. This will be followed by the song, "Illinois" rendered by Mrs. Westenberg, after which a few remarks will be made by the governor. Following this the statues will be presented by Horatio Taft, member of the board of state art advisers, and Louis L. Emmerson, Secretary of State, will accept the care of the statues in the name of the state of Illinois.

This will be followed by war music of the period of 1861-1865, after which addresses will be given by Richard Yates, congressman-at-large, and son of Richard Yates, and by Norman L. Jones, judge of the seventh judicial district, Illinois, will speak on "John M. Palmer." The statues will then be unveiled by Miss Dorothy Yates, granddaughter of Governor Yates, and Miss Margaret Palmer Jayne, granddaughter of Governor Palmer.

The statue of Governor Yates is by Alvin Polacek of Chicago, and that of Governor Palmer is by Leonard Crunelle of Chicago.

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my housework and washing I was so run-down, just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do every thing that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."

Mrs. MARY SAFFCHECK, 944 28th St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

LATEST NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

Stengel's Home Run Gives Giants Game

(By the Associated Press) NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Swinging his bat in that fabled setting of the diamond—the ninth inning with the score tied, two out and the count two and three—Casey Stengel blasted his way into baseball's Hall of Fame today with a home run drive that gave the New York Giants a spectacular verdict over the Yankees 5-4 in the opening clash of the 1923 World's series.

That mighty blow of Stengel, who came back after being relegated to baseball's scrap heap not long ago, ended a gripping pulse-throbbing battle in which the wits, decisive punch and brilliant defense of the Giants triumphed over the courage, brawn and fighting spirit of the Yankees.

Crashed to the extreme left center field stretches, the Herculean smash broke the heart of Joe Bush, fork ball star who had held the Giants in check after seeing his teammate, Waite Hoyt, battered from the mound.

A vast throng of 55,000 that shattered all records for world's series attendance and gate receipts and filled close to capacity the far flung reaches of baseball's greatest monument witnessed the opening of the third successive struggle between New York's rival clubs for premier honors of the diamond.

The attendance eclipsed by more than 13,000 the highest previous mark while the gate receipts of practically $182,000 surpassed the old record by more than $50,000.

Altho rain began to fall three hours after the first game of the world's series had ended and New York skies were overcast tonight the local weather bureau predicted another fine day for tomorrow's game at the Polo Grounds.

The official prediction was:

"Clearing tonight and fair tomorrow; moderate winds from the north and northeast."

Today's battle was the story of previous defeats the Giants have administered to the Yankees, the triumph of a machine guided by the "Master Mind" of John Joseph McGraw over brilliant individual resistance. As a team the Yankees today played better than at any time since their brief days of ascendancy in the 1921 series, but at the critical moments, they were out-thought, out-generalled and out-played.

Waite Hoyt, youthful twirling star of the Yankees and hero of the 1921 series, opposed John Watson, whose selection by McGraw came as a late minute surprise in the opening mound duel but neither lasted long. Watson, the veteran was unsteady from the start and after being bombarded for four hits and three runs in the first two innings was withdrawn when an army of Giant reserves was rushed into the attack in the third inning. He was relieved by "Rosey" Ryan, a younger star who stayed the limit and received credit for the victory, tho he was saved on many occasions only by the spectacular character of his defense.

Hoyt, after an impressive start in the first two innings was shelved into retirement in the third inning, after the giants had tied the score. Bush and his red flannel shirt came to the rescue and "Bullet Joe" after being found for a fourth run in that inning settled down brilliantly. He held the Giants to three hits in the remaining six innings, allowing only one runner to get as far as second base until the ninth, when Stengel came thru with the winning punch.

Babe Ruth, with one out in the first, forced Joe Dugan, who had walked and then on a hit and run play scored on Bob Meusel's two-base smash to centerfield, bringing in the first run of the series.

He again entered the limelight in the fifth, when, with one out, he drove a wicked liner to left, making third in another daring exhibition of base running when Irish Meusel handled the hit slowly in the belief that Babe would pull up at second. Bob Meusel lifted a looping fly over second base which Frisch grabbed from over his shoulder while running at top speed. Turning quickly, the Giant second sacker lined the ball to Snyder who blocked and tagged Ruth several feet from the plate to complete the double play.

Today's victory, incidentally, was the eighth in succession gained by the Giants over their metropolitan rivals in world's series play, a streak interrupted only by the tie game of 1922. The Giants won the last three games of the 1921 title struggle to gain a margin of five out of eight games, routed their opponents in four games last year and added another triumph today.

So far McGraw's is a record unparalleled in diamond annals. The probable pitchers for the second game tomorrow are Penneck or Jones for the Yankees, and Neft or Scott for the Giants.

Attendance and receipts for the first series game today broke all previous records. Total attendance was 55,297. Total receipts $181,912. Of the total sum the players will get $92,775.12; each club will get $30,925.95; the base ball commission will get $27,286.80.

INDEES' GAMES WITH WINCHESTER BEGIN SUNDAY At the opening game in Winchester Saturday between the Jacksonville Indies and the Winchester American Legion team Fryman will do the twirling for Jacksonville and Clark will catch his leopards. PURDUE WORKING FOR IOWA GAME

Michigan Meets Vanderbilt in an Important Non-Conference Game—News from Other Camps

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Purdue's football team which clashes with Iowa next Saturday has settled down to work with a determination that speaks well for success or a good showing in their first conference test. Purdue's easy victory over Wilmington last Saturday, has shown the team to be much stronger than last season's team of former years. A heavy active line, tall rangy backs and a speedy back field have been developed by Coach Phelan and will be at their best in next Saturday's game.

Michigan, which meets Vanderbilt in one of the most important non-conference games of the week, is devoting much of its time this week to tackling. Coach Yost having regarded as a sorry spectacle the Michigan tackling in the case game last week. Forward passing, particularly by Parker and Fyfe playing on the varsity is also being developed, indicating the Wolverines may launch an aerial attack.

Illinois with a good start in the right direction as a result of its victory over Nebraska is shaking up its line-up this week for the Butler game. Maurer and Crawford are being tried in the back field and Crawford at halfback has been making a very fine showing. Coach Zuppke evidently hopes that the two may prove the same kind of phenomenal find he apparently has in Grange.

Coach Spaulding of Minnesota, hard up for a quarterback, is trying out Swanbeck, who has been in the line. Wisconsin which meets the Minnesota team Oct. 27, is spending the week experimenting in the hope of finding a pair of ends, weakness in the ends having been shown in the game with Coe.

Indians defeated by Depauw last week has locked the gates and gone to work on new plays in preparation for the game with Northwestern next Saturday. Five varsity men are on the crippled list and the Hoosiers may enter the game Saturday with some of their regulars on the side lines.

BALTIMORE LOSES BY SCORE OF 9 TO 4

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 10.—(By The A. P.)—Kansas City champions of the American association defeated Baltimore 9 to 4 in the first game of the Inter-League series here today after the International League Champions had taken an early lead. In spite of a tendency to wildness at times Ferdie Schupp scattered Baltimore's hits and pitched afloat ball in the pinches, collecting nine strikeouts. Baltimore ran into a tough break in the third inning when Ogden, who replaced Parnham was knocked down by a liner from Becker's bat. He recovered the ball and forced a man at second but the injury slowed him up considerably. Thomas, who replaced Ogden, after the latter had given way to a pinchhitter in the eighth was nicked for four runs in Kansas City's half of the inning.

Altho the attendance did not reach the expectations of officials, approximately 13,000 being present, the field is expected to be packed to capacity tomorrow. An erroneous announcement that all the seats had been sold kept many away from the park.

Groves is expected to pitch for Baltimore tomorrow while Caldwell probably will work for Kansas City.

RAGGED TACKLING IS ZUPPKE'S PROBLEM

URBANA, Ill., Oct. 10.—Ragged tackling continues to be Coach Bob Zuppke's chief problem. His varsity missed try after try tonight, scrimmaging against a freshman squad, using Iowa and Butler plays. The freshmen went 40 yards for a touchdown on three plays and later crowded the ball over for another score, using passes and end runs. Winkler was given a chance at end and succeeded in stopping a play for losses. Vivian Green, regular center, was in a suit for the first time in three weeks, but did not scrimmage.

SHEEP KILLING DOGS

MENTION was recently made of the loss and crippling of a great number of sheep belonging to Charles H. Story at his farm east of Nichols Park. At that time it was stated that two dogs were doing the killing and a description of the dogs was given.

Mr. Story now advises that the same two dogs, which have been seen numerous times by both himself and neighbors have again begun their depredations on his flock having killed and crippled fifteen sheep within the last three days.

One of the dogs is described as an old dog, rather heavy, with dark yellow hair, while the other is a young light yellow collie with white about the neck. Mr. Story says that he is giving the description so that any one having dogs which the descriptions fit may be able to watch them.

Overloading Eleven With too Many Plays Very Common Fault

BY ROBERT C. ZUPPKE

Football Coach, University of Illinois, Author of "Football Technique and Tactics" Many football teams, especially high school eleven's, have too large a repertoire of plays. The inevitable result is that they are not sufficiently drilled in any of them.

I have selected ten plays. I believe this selection, together with punts place or drop kicks, runs and smashes, from punt formations will be practically a sufficient number for any team to use for a season.

It is axiomatic that a team must be well drilled, not only on the execution of plays but in the fundamentals such as tackling and blocking. But you must also develop a moral fiber that will enable the player who is weaker physically than some others, to play "over his head." The difference between champions and "almost" champions is the

CHAMPAIGN HIGH HAS SNAPPY TEAM

Men Coming to Play I. S. D. Tigers Average 154—Lineup of Teams for Saturday's Game

A letter was recently received from the faculty of Champaign High school by Coach Robey Burns of the I. S. D. Tigers, stating that the average weight of the team this year is 154 pounds, and that three letter men of last year's team are still in the line-up. They also enclose a squad picture of the Champaign boys which is on exhibition in the window at the Journal office.

The Champaign team has played two games this season, defeating Tuscola 6 to 0, and defeating Kankakee, 35 to 0. Their record of games last year shows as follows: C. H. S. 19, Normal U. H. S. 7; C. H. S. 3, Kankakee 0; C. H. S. 29, Terre Haute 0; C. H. S. 119, Forrest 0; C. H. S. 37, I. S. O. 0; C. H. S. 28; Moline 0; C. H. S. 55; Cicero 0; C. H. S. 7, Urbana 8.

The probable lineup as announced by both coaches for the game Saturday on Illinois field is given below.

C. H. S.	Position	I. S. D.
Gamble	Left end	A. Taylor
Pulliam	Left guard	Balm
Richman	Center	Sellers
Kenney	Right guard	Tillman
Hooper	Right tackle	Wolz
Hyland	Right End	Dillard
Majors	Quarterback	Miller
Heath	Left halfback	Rose
Denman	Right halfback	Schrader
Panchen (Capt.)	Fullback	Crabbs (Capt.)

Coach Burns announces that the following subs will be given a tryout during the game: Carlson, Quinn, Endrizza, Clark, and Baugh.

WHITE HALL BAND ADDS NEW MEMBERS

White Hall, Oct. 10.—The personnel of the White Hall Band has been strengthened by the addition of five new members from Wrights, the cream of the former village band of that place. The new additions are Paul Kesinger, alto; Olin Kesinger, clarinet; Knapp Mosler, trombone; Carr Knapp and Harry C. Johnson, cornets. They will rehearse with the local organization next Friday evening under the direction of A. E. Barrow, who recently succeeded F. A. Brooks in the leadership. The White Hall Band will take twenty select men on the trip to Springfield next Wednesday to attend the I. O. O. F. grand lodge. This organization does not conflict with the recently organized high school band under the direction of Ray Bechtold. The latter organization is making such good headway that it will be able to take care of important school gatherings during the term and also be an auxiliary of the parent band organization.

BUTLER PROMISES ILLINOIS TROUBLE

URBANA, Ill., Oct. 10.—The last game on Illinois field and the last home game until the Chicago-Illinois battle, November 3, will be staged Saturday between the Illini and Butler warriors.

The battle will attract a big crowd from both Indiana and Illinois for Butler is coming with the determination to win, encouraged by the memory that the Bulldogs trounced the Illini last year by a score of 10-7. The Hoosiers will bring a band.

Pat Page has lost only two men from his 1922 squad. From all reports the team is far superior to the eleven of last year.

Logansport, Ind., will be well represented on the field Saturday for three of the Indiana town's sons are going to be in the game. Dick Hall, big Illini right tackle, will be playing against Paul, left end on the Butler squad. Also Hiram Hensil, left guard. Also Hall formerly played with Butler.

Pat Page has an impressive looking team with Capt. H. H. Hungat of Indianapolis, right tackle; Gerald Strole, Kentland, Ind., left tackle; Lou Reichle, Indianapolis, center; Harry Duttenhaver, Kentland, right guard; "Fat" Cecil, Indianapolis, or Hiram Hensil, Logansport, left guard; Robert Blessing, Indianapolis, and Paul, Logansport, ends; Robert Nipper, Indianapolis, quarterback; Gerald Woods, Greenfield, fullback; Bill Kiser, Indianapolis, fullback; John Northam, Sheridan, fullback; Art Black, Indianapolis, fullback; Hal Griggs, Indianapolis, fullback.

Griggs is the star back and has a clever toe. He booted three place kicks in the game against Wabash last year from behind the 40 yard line and this year made a 52-yard place kick in practice.

White Sox Defeated Cubs in City Series

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The Cubs (the Cubs' park witnessed the first game of the Chicago city series today, defeating the White Sox of the American League 8 to 4.

Charley Robertson of "perfect game" fame, paved the way to defeat for his club in the fourth inning. With the bases filled and one out, Alexander grounded to Robertson, who threw wild to the plate in an attempt to force Friberg. Before the ball could be recovered Miller followed Friberg across the plate. The play upset the White Sox ace and Stutz shot a single to center and Adams followed with a double scoring two more runs and giving the National Leaguers a commanding lead. Ted Lyons, a recruit from Baylor university replaced Robertson and checked the rally.

Grover Alexander, the Cubs' veteran pitching star, was hit hard but managed to keep the hits well scattered, being supported by some great fielding on the part of Adams and Friberg.

Stutz and Adams led the attack for the Cubs, each having a perfect day at bat, the former gathering a double, two singles, a walk and sacrifice in five times up while Adams started with a sacrifice and followed with a brace of doubles, a triple and a single.

McClellan and Collins did the best stick work for the White Sox, little Mac driving out a double and two singles in four times up, while the White Sox captain drew two walks, smashed out a homer with a man on base and a single in five trips to the plate. Regular Indian summer weather was on hand and a crowd of 24,038, one of the largest crowds to attend an opening game at the Cubs' park witnessed the game. The two clubs have met ten times, the American Leaguers being victorious in seven series. Total receipts, $22,845.32. Players' pool, $11,651.11. Each club's share, $3,853.70. The players will share in the receipts of the first four games, the winners receiving 60 per cent and the losers 40 per cent of the pool.

The scene of activities will shift tomorrow to Comiskey park the home of the American League entry.

Market Report

MOVEMENT LAUNCHED FOR BETTER MARKING

Would Place State Highway Marking System on Par With That of Other States.

Chicago (AP)—Launching of a statewide campaign among local chambers of commerce to place the highway marking system of Illinois on a par with those of neighboring states is planned as the chief opening day's event at the annual meeting of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce here, October 16 and 17.

Preliminary steps in the campaign are being taken by a special committee and it is hoped to adopt a definite program at a conference during the meeting, according to Harvey T. Hill, secretary of the Illinois Chamber.

The effect of government regulation on business, considering of steps to place under way a constructive legislative program for the Illinois Chamber and formulation of ideas on what the organization can do to aid agriculture in the state, are among the other more important matters to come before the meeting.

Chicago's Position

In view of the position of Chicago as the focal point of railroads of the country, discussion of the influence of government regulation has been given central position on the program. On the morning of the second day, C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central Railroad, will speak on "Effects of the Railroad Situation Upon Business in General." This will be followed by the topic, "What Government Interference in Business Leads To," which will be presented by Dean Ralph B. Hillman of the School of Commerce, Northwestern University. In a conference of presidents of local chambers on the opening day, a start will be made at formulating a legislative program to be backed by the state organization at the next session of the legislature. It is hoped thus to map out a constructive list of measures in ample time so that the influence of the body may be made effectual.

An incidental feature of the meeting will be the opportunity of delegates to attend sessions of the special committee of the United States senate, which, beginning Oct. 15, will conduct hearings here under the auspices of the Illinois chamber of the McCormick waterways bill to improve the Illinois and Mississippi rivers.

ATTENDED CONFERENCE

Rev. John W. Kirk has returned from a vacation enjoyed in St. Louis where he attended the sessions of the Missouri conference of the A. M. E. church and addressed a gathering of 300 people and was also presented to the conference which closed its sessions Sunday evening. He met Rev. Mr. Newton who was for several years pastor of Bebel A. M. E. church of this city and is now a presiding elder in the Missouri conference. The gentleman had many questions to ask about Jacksonville and friends whom he remembered here.

Rev. Mr. Kirk met a number of friends and while in the city visited the parks and various attractions and very much enjoyed his vacation.

SEEKS WHEREABOUTS OF JOHN RICHARD HILL

White Hall, Oct. 10.—James R. Hanapin of Browns Spring, Mo., makes inquiry concerning one John Richard Hill, whom he has learned is located in this section of the country. The writer is a cousin of Mr. Hill, and says he would like to locate him for several reasons.

COAL MINING AND HUMAN LIFE LOSS

Report of Fifteen Years in Illinois Shows a Life Lost for Every 300,000 Tons Mined

SPRINGFIELD. (By the A. P.)—Every 300,000 tons of coal mined in Illinois in the last 15 years has cost a human life and a human body was maimed for every 50,000 tons mined in the same period, according to a statement by the Illinois United Mine Workers union. The statement said the figures were compiled from coal reports issued by the state department of mines and minerals.

In the 15 years from 1908 to 1922 covered by the statement 3,054 miners were killed and 26,570 injured sufficiently to cause loss of 30 or more days from work.

In 1908, 183 men were killed in the mines or one man was killed for every 428 men employed. The same year 819 were injured, or one man injured for every 86 men employed. For every 249,000 tons of coal mined in that year one miner lost his life.

The greatest loss of life in the mines was in 1910, when 406 men were killed and 742 injured. This was one man killed for every 184 employed, and one injured for every 101 employed. A life was given for every 119,000 tons of coal mined that year.

For the Year, 1922, was one of the best years in this respect. In that period 159 men were killed, making one life for every 617,000 tons mined, but the year showed 3,879 men injured or one man injured for every 25 employed. The number of injured men recorded has steadily increased since 1913, when 1,025 were injured as compared to 800 the year before. The year 1921 saw the high water mark for the 15 years in the number injured, the figure for that year being 4,327.

During the period covered by the statement, 82,086 was the average number of men employed. This means that during the entire period one man in each 26.88 employed around the mines was killed and one in each 3.09 was injured sufficiently to cause a loss of 30 or more days' work.

The miners' union, in a statement signed by President Frank Farrington of the union, comments as follows:

"The table shows a loss of life and an accident rate in the mines that is truly appalling in the rush and hurry to get out a large quantity of coal, but little regard is paid to safety conditions and the result as shown by the figures speak for itself."

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FOR MISS COULTAS

Murrayville Young Woman Given Very Pleasant Surprise in Honor of Birthday—Other Murrayville News.

Murrayville, Oct. 10.—Miss Lula Coultas who has been in poor health for some time, was given a very agreeable surprise Tuesday by the members of the Ladies Aid Society and other friends, in honor of her birthday anniversary. It was in the nature of a post card shower but she received many other nice things, among which was home-made candy and numerous good things to eat, and a large bouquet of roses from the Ladies Aid. Needless to say the remembrance was greatly appreciated by Miss Lula.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Carlson and son Robert and Mr. and Mrs. Rees Jones motored to Meredosia Sunday afternoon and visited Rev. and Mrs. L. T. Henninger.

The Young Woman's Home Missionary society will serve burgoon soup, pie and coffee Saturday, Oct. 13th. If the weather is convenient it will be served on the lawn by Solomon's store; if not in the town hall. Soup will be ready for the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jones at Durbin.

J. L. Solomon who is a patient at Our Savior's Hospital, is reported to be doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Millard and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Millard's sister, Mrs. Harry Lemon and family of near Manchester. The Young Woman's Home Missionary society will meet Friday evening with Mrs. Floyd Smith.

R. D. Moore of Galesburg called on his cousin J. L. Solomon at Our Savior's Hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Collins enjoyed a visit Sunday from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Collins Sr., of Hettick. Mrs. Collins remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bates and son Keith Brown of Kincaid, were week-end guests of Mrs. Bates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown.

Misses Ruth Beadles and Mildred Ragan of near Lynville spent the week end with Miss Ruth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Beadles.

WILL ATTEND MONUMENT UNVEILING

Governor Small has sent handsome invitations to the members of Matt Starr Post G. A. R., to attend the unveiling of the bronze statue of war Governor Yates, October 16th. The invitation is also seconded by Congressman at Large, Hon. Richard Yates. A number from this city will probably attend. Commander John Minter expects to be there and at the same time enjoy the sessions of the Grand I. O. O. F. lodge.
